

ANTHONY R. MASCOTRA, JR, MBA, CPA
Chief Operating Officer
Emory Clinic and Emory Specialty Associates
Emory Healthcare

Anthony Masciotra joined Emory Healthcare in September 2022 and is responsible for the development of the ambulatory market strategy and implementing the associated clinical care delivery operational plan of Emory Healthcare and its subsidiary's physician practices. Key responsibilities include strategic/operational planning, business/program development, financial management, administrative management of clinical operations, environmental safety, and facilities management. Additional responsibilities include high-quality patient care and services, including managing patient flow/access, coordinating ancillary services, and enhancing patient support and service improvement.

For the past 6 years, Mr. Masciotra was previously the SVP & Chief Ambulatory and Professional Practice Officer, the CEO, OHSU Practice Plan; Sr. Associate Dean, Clinical Practice with Oregon Health & Science University. Prior to that, Mr. Masciotra was the CEO, University of New Mexico Medical Group; CFO, UNM Cancer Center and also worked for Lovelace Health Systems, Cigna Healthcare, Baystate Health Systems and Ernst & Young.

Mr. Masciotra is an MBA and CPA with a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Connecticut and a Master's in Business Administration from the UNM Anderson School of Management.

Mr. Masciotra is married with two children.